

Acadia Pride Coordinator

The ASU is a not-for-profit organization that provides services, events, societies and advocacy work, along with much more, for the students of Acadia University. The ASU is an organization led by students, for students. It consists of over 100 employees and many more volunteers. The Acadia Students' Union story has been shaped and crafted since 1967 by you, the students. That is why we work every single day to support you in creating your story.

Acadia Pride is aimed at providing an outlet for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans-gendered, two-spirited, and queer (LGBT2IQ+) individuals, as well as friends, and allies. The group provides support for students, staff, and faculty dealing with issues related to sexual orientation and gender identity. Pride also aims to build a community within Acadia University, and promote its many goals including creating awareness of issues surrounding sexual orientation and promoting an open and safe atmosphere at Acadia University by breaking down the walls of homophobia, transphobia and other related issues. Throughout the year members take part in a variety of social activities. Weekly meetings are open for anyone to attend, as are the many social and awareness activities planned throughout the year. Acadia Pride in the past has held events such as Sex Toy Bingo and Sex/LGBT2IQ Trivia. Acadia Pride is committed to moving forward to help create a campus and community environment of inclusion, support and equality.
