

Axe Radio Coordinator

The ASU is a not-for-profit organization that provides services, events, societies and advocacy work, along with much more, for the students of Acadia University. The ASU is an organization led by students, for students. It consists of over 100 employees and many more volunteers. The Acadia Students' Union story has been shaped and crafted since 1967 by you, the students. That is why we work every single day to support you in creating your story.

The online radio station serves to benefit Acadia University, Acadia's students, and the community of Wolfville by strengthening communication between Acadia and the community of Wolfville as well as inter-student communication. The radio strives to provide a supplemental outlet for free artistic, cultural, sociopolitical expression, entertainment, and discussion of controversial material within quality, and thought-provoking programming. The radio can be tuned-in to online from anywhere on or off campus. Any campus member is invited to create their own show or help at any time during the year.
