

Centre for Global Education

The ASU is a not-for-profit organization that provides services, events, societies and advocacy work, along with much more, for the students of Acadia University. The ASU is an organization led by students, for students. It consists of over 100 employees and many more volunteers. The Acadia Students' Union story has been shaped and crafted since 1967 by you, the students. That is why we work every single day to support you in creating your story.

The Centre for Global Education (CGE) was founded in 2007 by Acadia students. The CGE seeks to facilitate and promote dialogue between various cultures at Acadia through hosting cultural events and activities. These dialogues seek to increase inclusiveness, and awareness of different cultures within Acadia and the community of Wolfville. Events have included a trip to Noggins Corn Maze, International Student Banquet, skating events and more. Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to participate in these events and activities.
