

Food Cupboard Coordinator

The ASU is a not-for-profit organization that provides services, events, societies and advocacy work, along with much more, for the students of Acadia University. The ASU is an organization led by students, for students. It consists of over 100 employees and many more volunteers. The Acadia Students' Union story has been shaped and crafted since 1967 by you, the students. That's why we work every single day to support you in creating your story.

The ASU Food Cupboard was founded to give Acadia University students access to emergency food services on campus. This resource provides emergency food support to any student along with miscellaneous living supplies such as toilet paper and feminine hygiene products. With these supplies, the room also provides nutritional information, dietary support, and budgeting tools that are available to all students. The long-term objectives of the Food Cupboard are to enhance student food literacy and nutrition through educational programming including community meals, cooking classes, and workshops.
