 - i. In case of full-day campus closure, voting days will be moved forward by twenty-four (24) hours.
- (7) In the event that any position is left vacant after the By-Election, or if the offices of any member of the Executive Board are vacant after the General Election, a by-election shall be held within thirty (30) days of the date the positions should have been filled.

- a. All constitutional election rules will apply to By-Elections,
- b. The Chief Returning Officer shall have discretion over which events to hold during by-elections, subject to the approval of their Election Plan.

Article 3: Nominations

- (1) To qualify as a candidate in any Union election, potential candidates shall submit completed nomination papers to the Chief Returning Officer by the deadline so stipulated.
- (2) No person shall be nominated for or hold more than one (1) position on Council at any one time.
- (3) Period of nomination:
 - a. The period of nominations for all positions to be elected in the General Election shall be open the first day of the winter semester and shall close twenty-one (21) days thereafter.
 - b. The period of nominations for all positions to be elected in the By-Election shall be open by the first day of classes, and shall close eleven (11) days prior to the date of the election, discounting Election Day.
 - c. Nomination forms must be submitted to the Chief Returning Officer no later than 4:00 PM on the day which nominations close.
 - d. The Chief Returning Officer may extend the deadline of nominations by no more than twenty-four (24) hours for those elected positions that have zero nominees applying.
 - e. The Chief Returning Officer will also widely publicize a further call for nominations.
 - f. Upon exercising this option an announcement shall be made to the student body.
 - g. Should no qualified person apply for nomination at the end of the extension, the position shall be filled in the following Union Election.
- (4) Nomination papers:
 - a. All nomination papers must be signed by the nominee and ten (10) ordinary or associate members of the Union, and contain the student numbers of the nominee and those signing, in order to be considered valid.

- b. A nomination paper will be considered invalid for the following reasons:
 - i. The signature of the candidate is a forgery;
 - ii. Any person who signed it is not an ordinary or associate member of the Union;
 - iii. There are not ten (10) signatures from ordinary or associate members of the Union;
 - iv. The nomination paper is void of any of the nominees' requisite signatures or initials; or
 - v. The form is submitted after the close of nominations.
- c. The nomination form must require the candidate to acknowledge that they have read and understood the ASU constitution, specifically By-Law 3.
- d. The nomination form must require that the candidate provide consent to the Chief Returning Officer to verify the eligibility requirements of said candidate under Article 4 of By-Law 3 (Union Elections Act).
- e. The nomination form must require the candidate to acknowledge that ignorance of the constitution does not constitute an excuse for an election offence(s).
- f. The nomination form must stipulate the mandatory nature of the Official Candidates' Meeting, as well as the date and location of the meeting.

Article 4: Eligibility

- (1) Only ordinary or associate members of the Union may file a nomination form for any elected position of the Union, so long as they meet the eligibility requirements as outlined in Article II of the Acadia Students' Union Constitution.
- (2) The Chief Returning Officer, Deputy Chief Returning Officer, and all other election officials, are not eligible to apply for nomination, to publicly support any candidate, or to run in a Union election for which they are serving this function.
- (3) All poll attendants are not eligible to apply for nomination, to publicly support any candidate on election days, or to run in a Union election for which they are serving this function.
- (4) Candidates for First Year Officer must be a student in their first year of studies at Acadia University at the time of nomination.

- (5) Candidates for Student Senator must be a registered student in their respective faculties at the time of nomination.
- (6) All candidates must possess a sessional GPA of at least 2.0 in the previous semester.
 - a. This requirement will be confirmed by the Chief Returning Officer within 72 hours of the closing of nominations.
 - b. This requirement is waived for all students in the first semester of their first year of post-secondary study.
- (7) The Chief Returning Officer must validate each nomination form with their signature or initials after confirming that all eligibility requirements have been met by the candidate.
 - a. This validation must be commenced within twenty-four (24) hours after receiving the nomination form.

Article 5: Withdrawal of Nomination

- (1) A candidate may withdraw their nomination before the closing of the nomination period and that such candidate(s) shall be determined to not have been officially nominated.
 - a. Any withdrawal of nomination must be submitted in writing to the Chief Returning Officer and must be signed by both the Chief Returning Officer and the candidate wishing to withdraw their nomination.
- (2) Any candidate wishing to withdraw from an election after the closing of the nomination period may do so at the discretion of the Chief Returning Officer.
 - a. Upon receipt of a withdrawal submission, the Chief Returning Officer shall declare that candidate had not been deemed officially nominated.
- (3) The creation and/or publication of a false statement of withdrawal intended to prevent an election of a candidate constitutes an offence under Article 12 of By-Law 3 (Union Elections Act).

Article 6: Death of a Candidate

- (1) Death of a candidate before close of nominations:

- a. If a candidate dies before the close of nominations, they shall be determined to not have been officially nominated.
- (2) Death of a candidate between the close of nominations and the day of the election:

If the deceased candidate was the only person running for a non-executive position, the Chief Returning Officer shall hold a By-Election to fill the position(s) within thirty (30) days from the Chairperson's issuance of a Public Notice and Declaration of Vacancy on the Students' Representative Council.

- i. If the deceased candidate was not the only individual running during the campaign and voting periods, the candidate shall be deemed not to have been officially nominated.
- b. If the deceased candidate was the only candidate running for a certain position on the Executive Board, the Chief Returning Officer shall hold a by-election to fill the position(s) within thirty (30) days of the date of the General Election.
- i. If the deceased candidate was not the only individual running during the campaign and voting periods, the candidate shall be deemed not to have been officially nominated.

Article 7: Campaign Financing

- (1) The maximum amount permitted for each candidate to spend on a campaign includes any and all costs associated with a candidate's campaign during the election period including posters, food items, pins, beverages, etc.
- (2) All candidates must hand in any and all receipts to the Chief Returning Officer within seven (7) academic days after the election results are announced to candidates at the final All-Candidates Meeting.
- a. If a previously owned item by the candidate is used in the campaign, then they will submit instead to the Chief Returning Officer exactly what the item is, its estimated cost, and the logic behind the estimation.
- (3) The value of all campaign materials used in the election, regardless of whether they were purchased specifically for the election or not, including any homemade materials such as t-shirts and baked goods, are included in the maximum amounts as stated below.
- (4) Any gifts, donations, or sponsorships made to a candidate are included in the total maximum amount for campaign financing. The Chief Returning Officer must estimate the value of any gifts, donations, and sponsorships unless a receipt is provided.

- a. If the Chief Returning Officer suspects the receipt does not represent the market value, they can provide a reasonable estimate for its market value, and that value shall be included in the total maximum amount for the campaign.
- (5) The items/expenses not included in the maximum allowable amount are tape, sticky tack, staples, and glue.
- (6) Each candidate may spend up to the maximum amounts listed below on financing their campaign:
